

QUESTIONS FOR REFLECTION AFTER READING CHAPTER 5

1 In what ways can we make room for God in our everyday life? How can we respect and make room for possible differences in faith and worldviews in the daily practice of our faith?

2 How can we let our own children, family and friends experience Christ through our marriage and our family life?

3 Which hymns, Bible texts and symbols will we use in the wedding in order to give family and friends an eloquent image of our special vocation to marry each other?
